

The Town and Village Records collection at the Lake Placid Public Library includes files on a large number of items of local interest. Included in the file are pamphlets, newspaper clippings, personal memoirs and more. There are histories of buildings, farms and churches, family histories, information on winter sports, descriptions and histories of local lakes, rivers and ponds, historical information on local hotels and the tourist industry, information on the Lake Placid Hall of Fame and its inductees, information on local roads and highways, description and history of golfing in the Lake Placid area, information and histories of local musicians, descriptions of the cottages of the Lake Placid Club, information on John Brown and other subjects.